Wellness Tips:

There are many things we can do to try to take care of ourselves. Here are some tips to help you:

- Try to relax and reduce stress, breathing activities are helpful, deep breaths in and out
- Find ways to learn and be creative, this can be as simple as coloring or baking
- Spend time in nature, go for a walk, and breathe the fresh air
- Connect with others, talk to a friend, or plan a night out
- Look after your physical health, and remember to move, in any way that feels good to you
- Try to improve your sleep, the most important thing for mental health is good sleep!

Remember that good days for your well-being do not always look the same. We do not always have the same levels of energy or motivation. Be kind to yourself and do what feels right for you at the moment.

COURSE FEATURE: ROBOTICS I

Taught by Ken Gasser and Elle Bonnema

On Friday, November 3, Robotics 1 students competed against Norwayne for the Third Annual Mini-Sumo Bot Competition! Teams had to build a completely autonomous robot that was designed and programmed to find and push the opposing robot out of the ring without going out of the ring itself. Students had to obey several constraints while designing their robots. Specifically, robots were to be built only using plastic components, could weigh no more than 1.5 kg, and could be no larger than 20 x 20 x 20 cm. A total of 28 teams went head-to-head in a double-elimination tournament. At the end of the afternoon, two Chippewa teams finished "on the podium" this year! Walker Husk and Brady Mitchell earned 3rd Place, and Mason Whalen and Ian Goodrich were our 2023 Grand Champions!

Robotics 1 is a one-semester STEM elective open to all 9-12th grade students. During the first half of the course, students get an introduction to building and programming their robots as they complete a series of mini-challenges designed to test these skills as well as their problem-solving abilities. This prepares them for the second half of the semester, when students build a total of two competition robots: Mini Sumo Bot, and (new for 2024) Box Bot. Our tournaments follow the rules and specifications of the official National Robotics Challenge (NRC), which takes place each spring. Upon successful completion of Robotics 1, students can go on to take Robotics 2 where they design and build their own robot for one of the 13 competitions that they will take to the NRC.

We are proud of the growth of this program over the last 11 years and thank the staff, administration, and community for their continued support!
