

Clear Google Chrome Browser Data

1. Find the 3 dots in the upper right hand corner and click on them
2. Go down to settings and click on it
3. When settings opens find the Privacy and security
4. Click on the clear browsing Data
5. Once the clear browsing data opens
6. change the time range to all time and click clear data.
7. This will take a bit to do that and once it finishes then the web site will open again

Clear Google Chrome Browser Data - Different Method

1. Find the 3 dots in the upper right hand corner and click on them
2. Go down to more tools and left click
3. From the menu that appears click on clear browsing data
4. When clear browsing data window opens change the time range to all time and left click clear data
5. This will take a bit to do that and once it finishes then the web site will open again